Dear Mr. Glazebrook:

On my return from Washington I found your letter. Professor Alexander is willing to review Peer's book. Will you have it sent to him direct to De Crassi Point? I told him that you would get the review into the "Globe".

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Mr. Glazebrook:

I am sending you the article which I promised for the Round Table on "Canadian Universities and the War". It is not as long as you suggested but I think quite long enough. You will observe that I have not gone into any details, but I hope that my survey is comprehensive as it is based upon direct information which I have received from nearly all the Universities. In some places the English is not as good as it should be as I have written it rather hurriedly. Is there any chance of a revise ? However, as it does not go in in my own name these details are not so important. I hope to see you soon. With kind regards,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
